Don't just wonder about Heaven—embrace it with a faith that turns anticipation into excitement and peace.

Book Club: The Narrow Path

- What: We live in a culture that wants it all. More is seen as better—whether it's more money, social media fame, choices, or power. For those chasing this way of life, “narrow” seems negative. Who wants to narrow their options . . . or be seen as narrow-minded? Which is why the most well-known talk in the history of the world—the Sermon on the Mount—is also the most paradoxical one. In it, Jesus holds up the narrow path as the most spacious . . . and the broader path as the more confining one. Rich Villodas explores what today's broad and narrow paths look like. The answer may surprise you—and will help you pursue the way of Jesus more deeply when it comes to loving God and others, prayer, conflict, money, anxiety, and more.
- When: Wednesday, June 25 ~ 7:00-8:30pm
- Where: LHUMC Bride's Room
- Led by: Lindsey Parker & Gretel Roberts
- Cost: Cost of book (please purchase on your own)

Book Club: The Journey Toward Wholeness

- What: In everything from health care and politics to technology and economics, we are experiencing feelings of loss, anger, and anxiety. In the Enneagram's wisdom, our number determines how we respond. We automatically move to another number when we're feeling stress and to yet another when we're feeling secure. Such moves may help us feel better temporarily but don't last. Suzanne Stabile opens the concept of three Centers of Intelligence: thinking, feeling, and doing. When we learn to manage these centers, each for its intended purpose, we open a path to reducing fear, improving relationships, growing spiritually, and finding wholeness.
- When: Wednesday, July 30 ~ 7:00-8:30pm
- Where: LHUMC Bride's Room
- Led by: Lindsey Parker & Gretel Roberts
- Cost: Cost of book (please purchase on your own)
